GETTING IN

No need to spend hundreds on tickets if you own a shovel! Get to the grounds a few days early, find a good spot, and bury yourself. Once the festival starts, emerge from your hole and let the fun begin! Security will assume you're one of those enthusiastic mud-covered people.

FOOD

Festivals don't allow outside food, but have you seen how buff cows get just from eating grass? Festivals have grass all over! Or for a varied menu, open up a pigeon! Their bellies are full of discarded food people foolishly bought.

BATHROOMS

The lines for port-o-potties are as inhumane as their interiors. You could wear a diaper, but that's offensive to babies and the incontinent. Instead, try micropeeing. One drop here, one drop there. Only you will know.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The most important thing when attending a festival? Let people know you're at the festival. With mostly Russian bots following you on social media, you'll need a way to reach an audience of non-bots. What would definitely go viral: a pic of you rushing the stage to tackle Tupac's hologram.

VIEWING

Getting a good view of your favorite artist can be a challenge. Stilts aren't allowed, but leg extension surgery is! Though illegal in the U.S. (due to jealous senators), it's still available in some of the lesser-known countries (Stiltzistan). Get it and you'll be taller than the girl sitting on her boyfriend's shoulders.

DUH DEPT.

With her historic Grammy sweep, Billie Eilish now sells enough records to sustain her own hair-dyeing staff. But not too long ago, the big-time "bad guy" was just a normal teenager (well, a teenager) trying to make a few bucks beyond her allowance...

ONE FINE-ASS DAY WITH LIZZO

Hello, reader! I'm sure you all recognize me, Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan! At first, I may seem like a bizarre choice to investigate the hip-hop world of Eminem, but Dick Cheney, the swift MAD editors' first choice, respectfully declined to do this! But I assure you that my rappa roots run deep! With one word from my lips, people's lives are spared or destroyed, just like Suge Knight! I'm surrounded by gold-digging hos, just like Snoop Dogg! And like Puff Daddy, I have mo' money, mo' problems! Also, I love knockin' them big boots! The most controversial figure in today's rap scene is Eminem! Despite his success, critics blast his violent, homophobic, obscene, misogynist imagery! I say hey, the boy's got a little irrational exuberance! Welcome to this...SPECIAL MAD INTERVIEW WITH...

EMINEM

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED IN MAD #406, JUN '01

I'm gonna take this shiny new cheese grater and scratch your skin rough, like an alligator! And as I peel your #$$@ flesh away, cut your legs off, sell 'em on eBay, don't you know it's just my loving way of saying "Happy Mother's Day"?*

WRITER DESMOND DEVLIN
ARTIST JACK SYRACUSE
COLORIST DIGITAL CHAMELEON

Eminem, congratulations on being the biggest white music superstar since Michael Jackson!

Yo, drop that $#!%! My fans know that I have true black roots!

Yes, I can see those black roots! You might want to try another gallon of yellow hair dye!

See, what his critics don't understand is that Eminem is like a comedian! What he's saying is ironic!

I'll cut your trachea, your spine I'll break, oh yeah, Purina Worm Chow's what I'll make-ya!

Are you saying those lyrics are ironic?

100%! It'll all be clear when we shoot the video! 'Cause when I get to that line, I'm gonna smirk!

Most musicians record dozens of songs, then pick out the best ones for an album! You must have a lot in the can!

Nope! For a 45-minute album, I record 30 minutes of music! Then, I repeat it! I'm no fool!

Tupac recorded 6,000 songs and they shot his ass dead! He's in the ground five years and there's STILL new CDs!

Remember that, Dre! If you want fresh Eminem jams, you're gonna have to protect me real good!

I...I'm not sure why, but suddenly I could really go for some Twinkies, Doritos, Snickers, Peanut Butter Cups and Fluffernutters!

Yeah! Drug abuse is a real problem in this country! But I do support medical marijuana when prescribed by a doctor! For instance, Dr. Dre!

I gotta make a #@%&ing appearance in court! Quentin, take us there!

I couldn't help but notice that most of your lyrics are about yourself! The Real Slim Shady, My Name Is, I'm Shady, The Way I Am!

Who, me? Me? Me? Eminem? Marshall Mathers? Me? Are we talking about me?

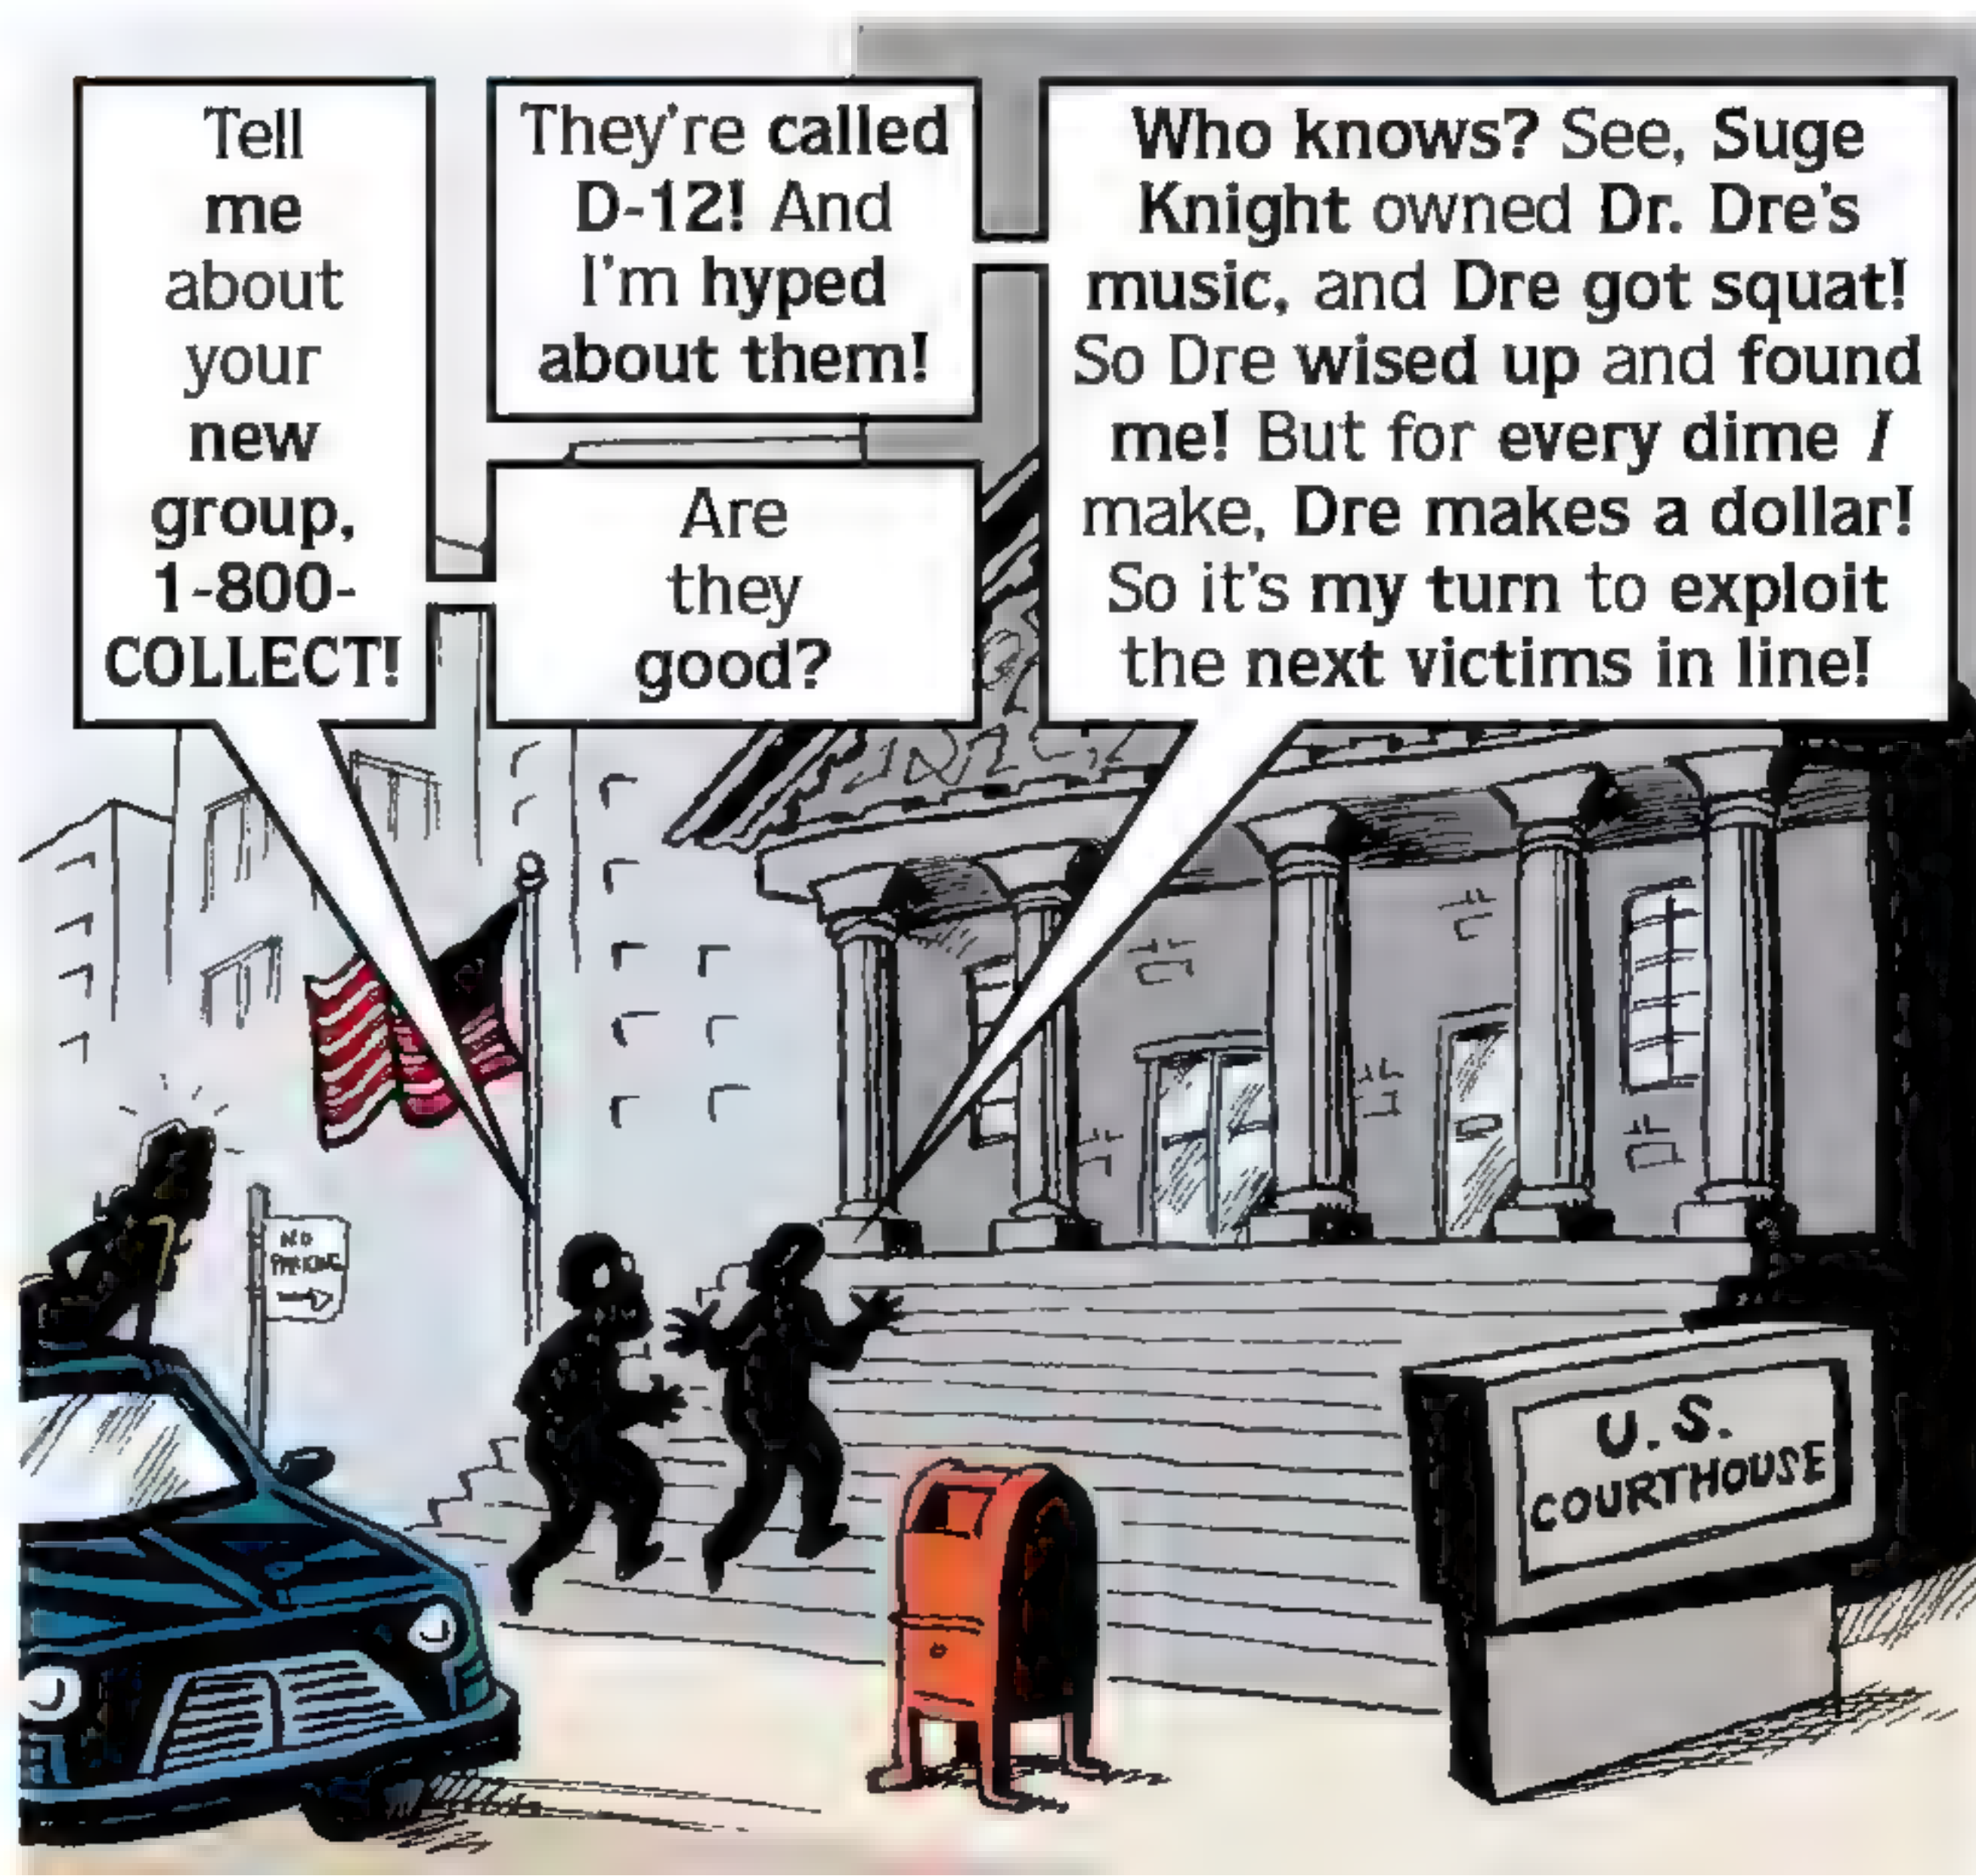

Okay, maybe I talk about myself more than most rappers! But don't forget my hit Stan! That one's not about me at all! It's about the fans who idolize me!

Are overly aggressive fans a big problem for you?

Hell yeah! There's this one angry chick, she's always after me! She contacts me, gives me #%&@ed-up advice, tells me what to do, makes death threats!

Wow! Nasty! what can you do about a person who harasses you like that? Divorce her!

Tell me about your new group, 1-800-COLLECT!

They're called D-12! And I'm hyped about them! Are they good?

Who knows? See, Suge Knight owned Dr. Dre's music, and Dre got squat! So Dre wised up and found me! But for every dime I make, Dre makes a dollar! So it's my turn to exploit the next victims in line!

That's predatory! That's immoral! That's wrong!

That's show biz!

Ax yo trip, I was ballin' with much bank, on swo, flossin' and flexin'! And some ICP fader gaffle me like I a busta! I'm 'bout it, so's I serve the blank biscuit, and they #@&%en go taz on me! The jakes send a berry and I gets bag up! I ain't be loc'ing, I just skitzing on the shooks...chill fo' 6-oh, a'ight?

If it please the court, my attorney and I would like to request a formal stay of this hearing until certain prima-facie affidavits can be introduced as evidence!

The stay is granted!

Thank you, your Honor! I thank the court for its wise judicial indulgence!

A'ight, the greta be squashed! We on J.P.T. now! I'm a get me some $#@&ing chrissy! Time to ghost, we be geese!

Throw out this &%$@ing Armani jacket! I want to look good on camera when MTV News gets here!

I couldn't help but notice that you started talking "white" in court!

Damn straight! I may look white and talk black, but if my dimpled 115-pound butt's ever in prison, I won't be saying a peep, except "happy birthday, husband"!

Elton! It was great of you to come! Your new wig looks fantastic!

Yeah, well, Dr. Dre smoked the hairpiece I wore to the Grammys! Tell that pothead he can expect a big bill!

You sang a duet with Eminem at the Grammys! As a gay man, how can you justify singing with a hate-spewing homophobe?

Heh heh! I guess I've always been attracted to "bad boys"!

Aw, Elton knows that "queer" and "homo" are just words! There are no such things as bad words! There are only bad intentions!

True, but how do you explain these lyrics from your upcoming album? I wish I had a million plastic bags, so I could suffocate a million—

Hey, I needed a rhyme for bags! But what you're forgetting is all my songs about hate and torture of heterosexuals! If I didn't rap about hating gays, it would be reverse non-discrimination!

Good grief! And I thought I was working for cartoon characters when I wrote The Lion King!

Like Elton, I also cried when Princess Diana died!

Really?

I had a song where I kidnapped her, chopped up Prince William and set the Palace on fire! But when the chick died, so did my song!

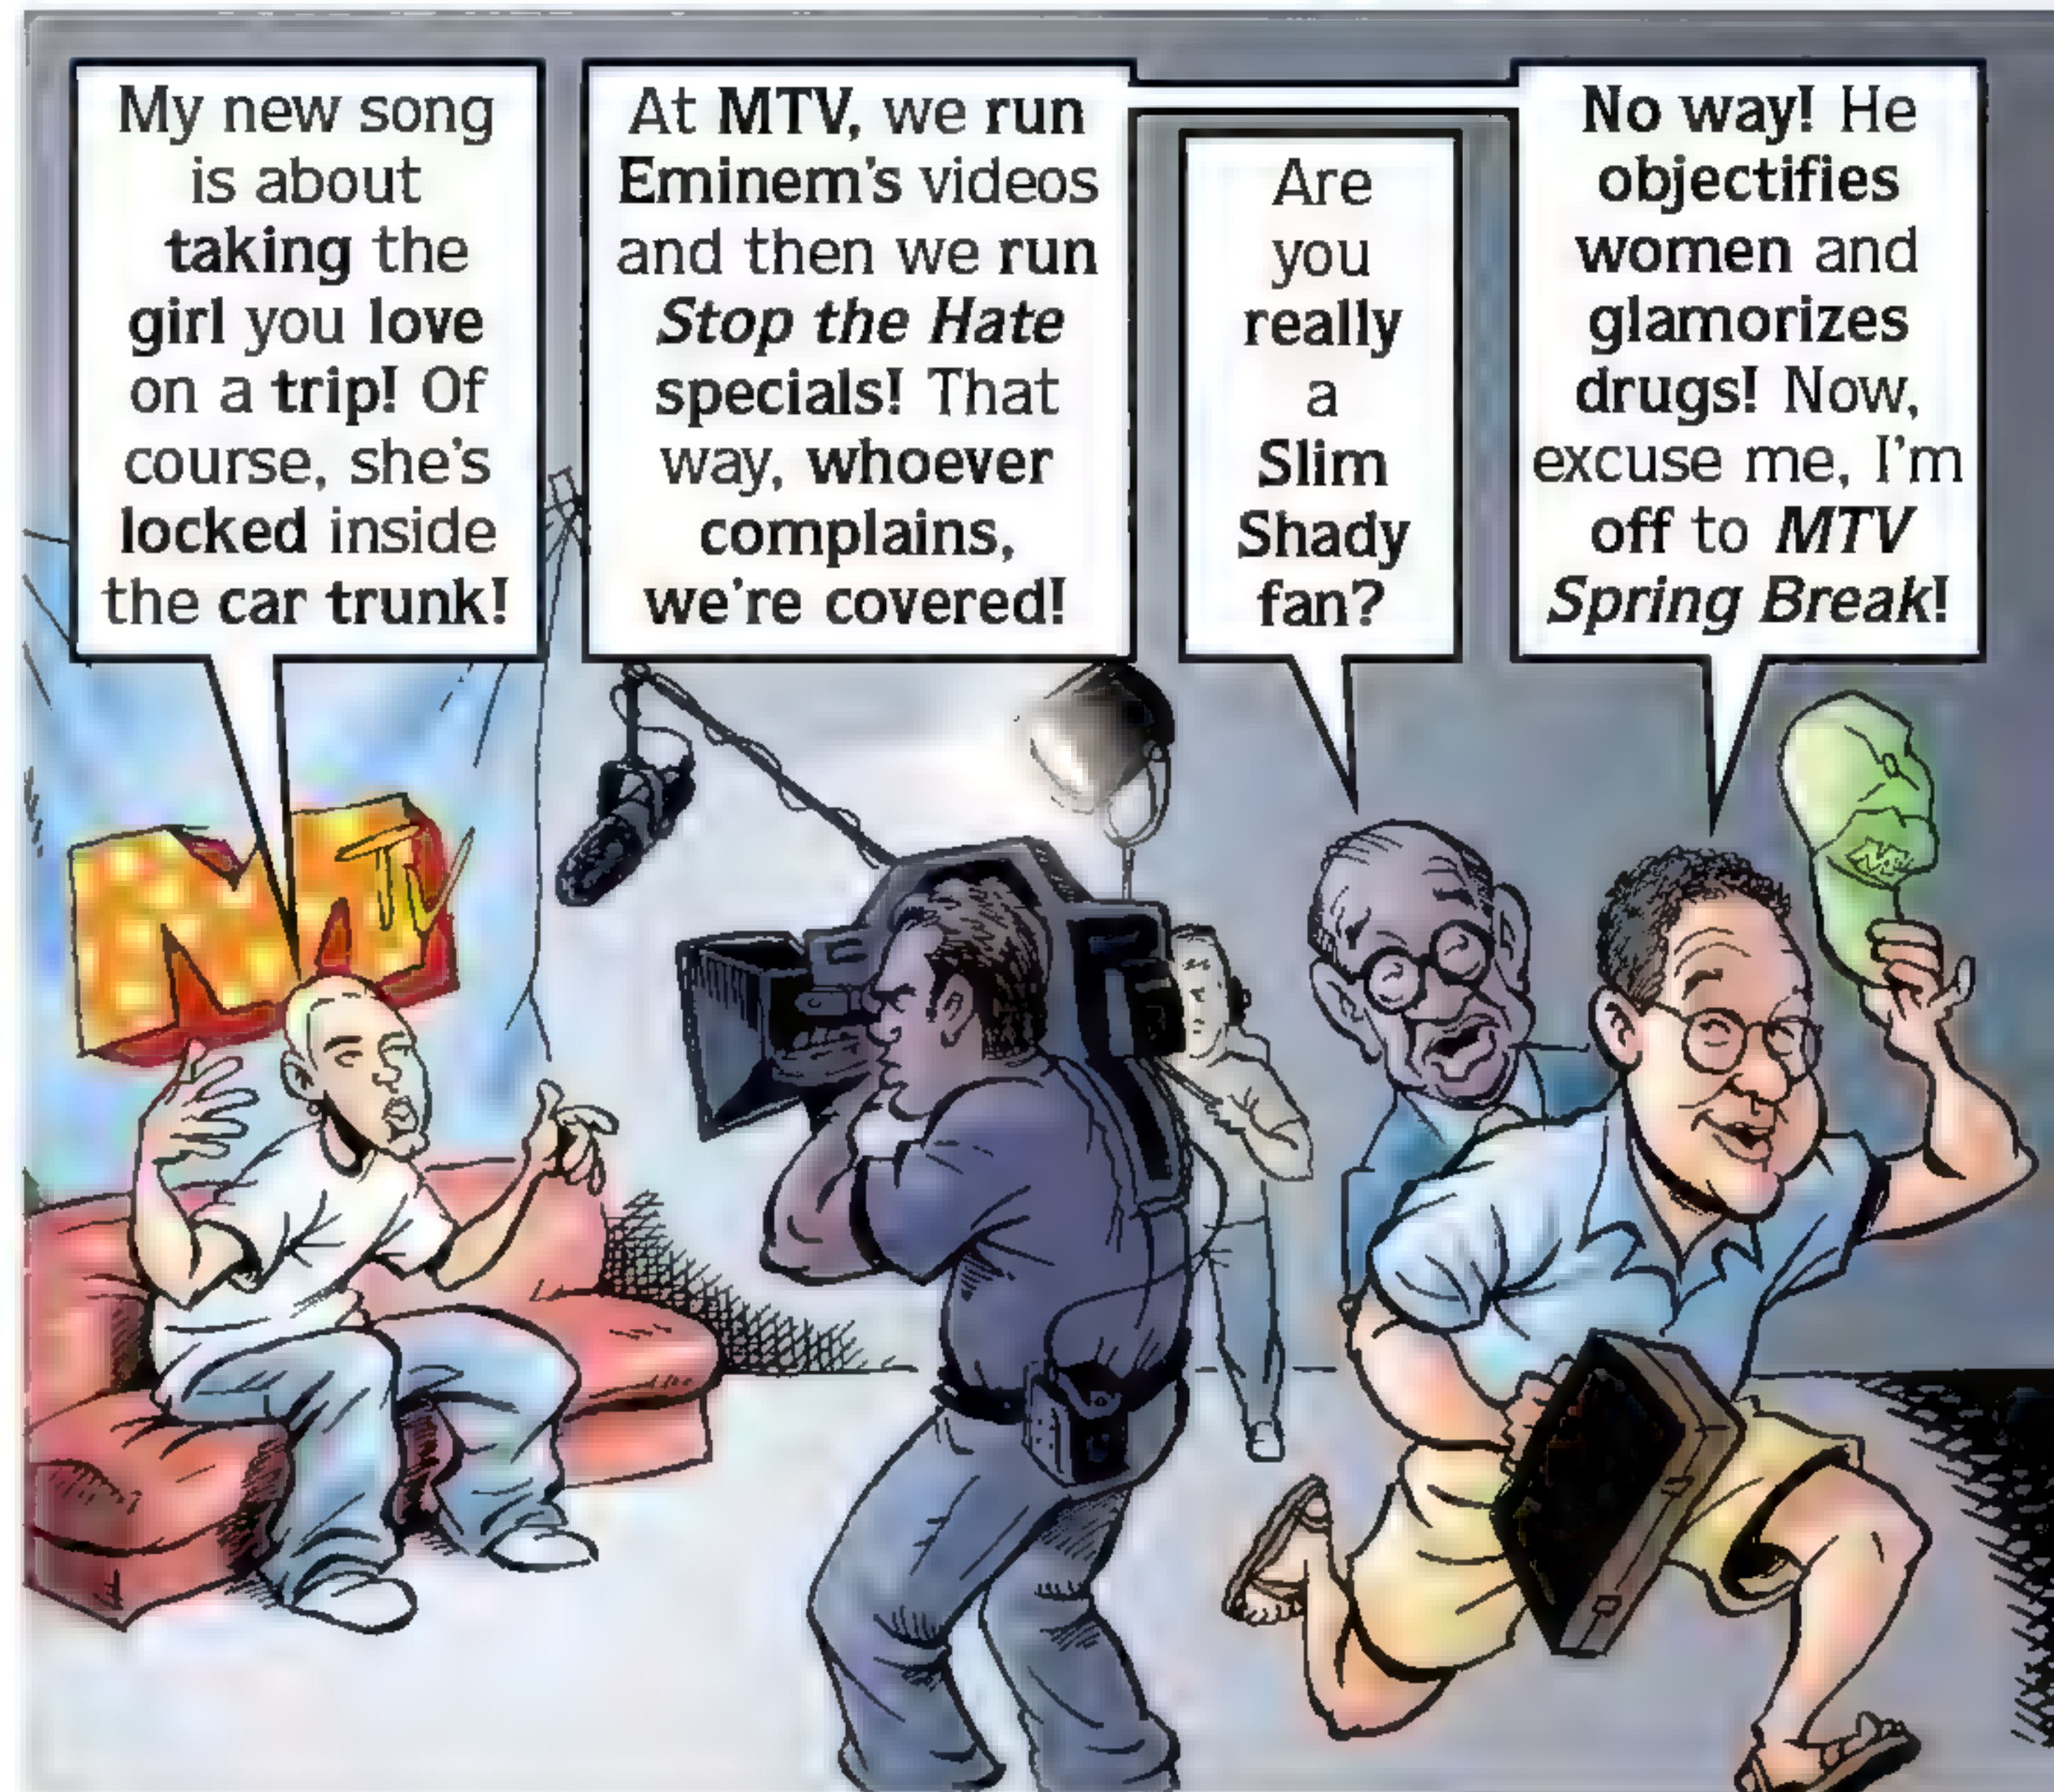

How do you feel doing MTV News while facing charges?

Being in court is like making a personal appearance! And if Puffy and Wu-Tang have clothing lines, so can I!

What does your own clothing line have to do with being in court?

I've got Slim Shady orange jumpsuits and handcuffs, and Air Mathers sneakers with no shoelaces! It's the fashion statement "I can afford any bail!"

My new song is about taking the girl you love on a trip! Of course, she's locked inside the car trunk!

At MTV, we run Eminem's videos and then we run Stop the Hate specials! That way, whoever complains, we're covered!

Are you really a Slim Shady fan?

No way! He objectifies women and glamorizes drugs! Now, excuse me, I'm off to MTV Spring Break!

Phew! That was the most exhausting, in-depth MTV interview I've ever done! Wow! 14 seconds!

We're running out of space, Eminem, so I'd like to ask you about where the future direction of...

Forget your dumb questions! Just let the rap outta your tight-ass body and sing it straight up!

GOD, I LOVE HIS PIMP HAND!

Hi kids! Do you like bond-equivalent yield?
Wanna see me make your fat momma squeal?
Wanna see me amortize your custodial fees?
Wanna see your skank sister down on her knees?

Hi! My name is...(what?)...My name is...(who?)...
My name is...(after-tax profit)...Greedy Greenspan!
Hi! My name is...(balloon maturity)...
My name is...(standard deviation)...My name is...
(initial public offering)...Greedy Greenspan!

I just orchestrated a leveraged buyout! Then I took a vacuum cleaner and sucked your eye out!
If I met Bill Gates, I'd throw his ass through Windows.
Then I'd take his wallet and tip the &%$@# at the skin shows!
Don't tell me &%*# about the Tokyo market!
When I want your advice, get on all fours and bark it!
The stock split, and now I'm gonna split your head!
Oops! Your brains came out, and now you're in the red!

Go, Greeny, go! Now, if I can only get the Fortune 500 guys to start shooting each other, I'll really have accomplished something valuable for the society!

DR. DRE DRE DAY

This is another Dr. Dre video with Snoop Doggy Dogg, not to be mixed up with Dre's role in Snoop's "Gin and Juice," after which Snoop appeared in shows up in Dre's "Nuthin' But a 'G' Thang," before Ice Cube teamed up with Dre in "Natural Born Killaz." Dr. Dre accidentally made a cameo appearance in his own video.

These guys can't sneeze without a hundred homies nearby to say "Gesundheit." And yet for any real-life shooting incident, there never seems to be even one witness.

DR. DRE

KEEP THEIR HEADS RINGIN'

After making a dozen videos of party people bouncing up and down in someone's house, Dr. Dre feared the concept was getting stale. So this one's in an airplane hangar.

80% of travelers polled preferred to take their chances with three panicky, untrained hijackers than board any scheduled ValuJet/AirTran Airlines flight.

NUTHIN' BUT A "G" THANG

The Children's Television Workshop is considering using "Nuthin' But a 'G' Thang" as the theme of an upcoming episode of Sesame Street. In it, Ernie "takes out" Cookie Monster, Grover and any other Muppets showing the Crips' colors.

It was shortly after filming this scene that Dr. Dre decided it really was time to go on a diet.

Sssshhh! If you listen real closely, you can hear Dre's old N.W.A partner MC Ren bringing his bag of soda cans to the recycling center.

BONE THUGS-N-HARMONY

THA CROSSROADS

The director got the idea for this scene one week while waiting in line at Disney World.

The Wish Bone's connected to the Layzie Bone and the Layzie Bone's connected to the Bizzy Bone, and the Bizzy Bone's connected to the Krayzie Bone, and...

RAPPER'S DELIGHT

Snoop takes a responsible stand against drinking and driving in this video by putting his car in park before guzzling gin.

The day after this scene in which Snoop wears a hockey jersey was shown on Canadian TV, over 150,000 sets were brought to repairmen for color knob adjustments.

SNOOP DOGGY DOGG GIN AND JUICE

One of the least desirable jobs in all of showbiz is "puke wrangler."

Heyyyy, Macarena!

Due to 2Pac's premature death, Death Row may be forced to stop releasing additional yearly 2Pac albums by 2009.

SNOOP DOGGY DOGG

WHO AM I?

Snoop enjoyed shooting this video - except for weeks afterward, he had the overpowering urge to smell other rappers' asses.

This rooftop scene is reminiscent of the Beatles in Let It Be.

That is, if the Beatles were singing about shootin' bros and bangin' hos.

Snoop is a hardcore gangbanger who doesn't take orders from anybody. And besides, MTV might have played his video even if he didn't change or bleep 23 different parts of the lyrics.

2PAC (FEAT. DR. DRE) CALIFORNIA LOVE

Uh...no.

In the great circle of life, as one thing dies, another is born to take its place. And so it was with the great rock and roller Elvis Presley. Almost immediately after his death, a bevy of Elvis impersonators were born to fill our primal need to watch a sweaty, gyrating guy in a sequined jumpsuit. Sadly, many of these impersonators are now a bit past their prime and are suffering the slings and arrows that frequently accompany old age. Many of these hardworking performers have simply been forgotten, cast off to the dustbin of showbiz. But you'll remember, when MAD exposes...

HEARTBREAKING PROBLEMS OF AGING ELVIS IMPERSONATORS

Few, if any, health care plans provide for the nearly bi-monthly hip replacements they require

Elvis' trademark motto "T.C.B." has, sadly, become just another everyday nursing home staff code word

There are currently no provisions to allow aging Elvis impersonators to die with dignity, on their own toilet

Frequent memory lapses cause him more and more to forget why he "left the building"

The classic Elvis lip curl now causes previously unforeseen problems

A society conditioned to choose between "Skinny Elvis" and "Fat Elvis" is simply unprepared to add "Dementia-Addled Elvis" to the mix

There is woefully inadequate funding to provide grilled peanut butter, banana and bacon sandwiches in the Meals on Wheels program

The overwhelming depression that sometimes accompanies Male Pattern Sideburn Baldness

The lines of the classic Elvis jumpsuit simply cannot stand up to the rigors of a fully-loaded, heavy-duty Depends

THE WONDROUS WOODSTOCK MUSIC FAIR

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED IN MAD #134, APR '70

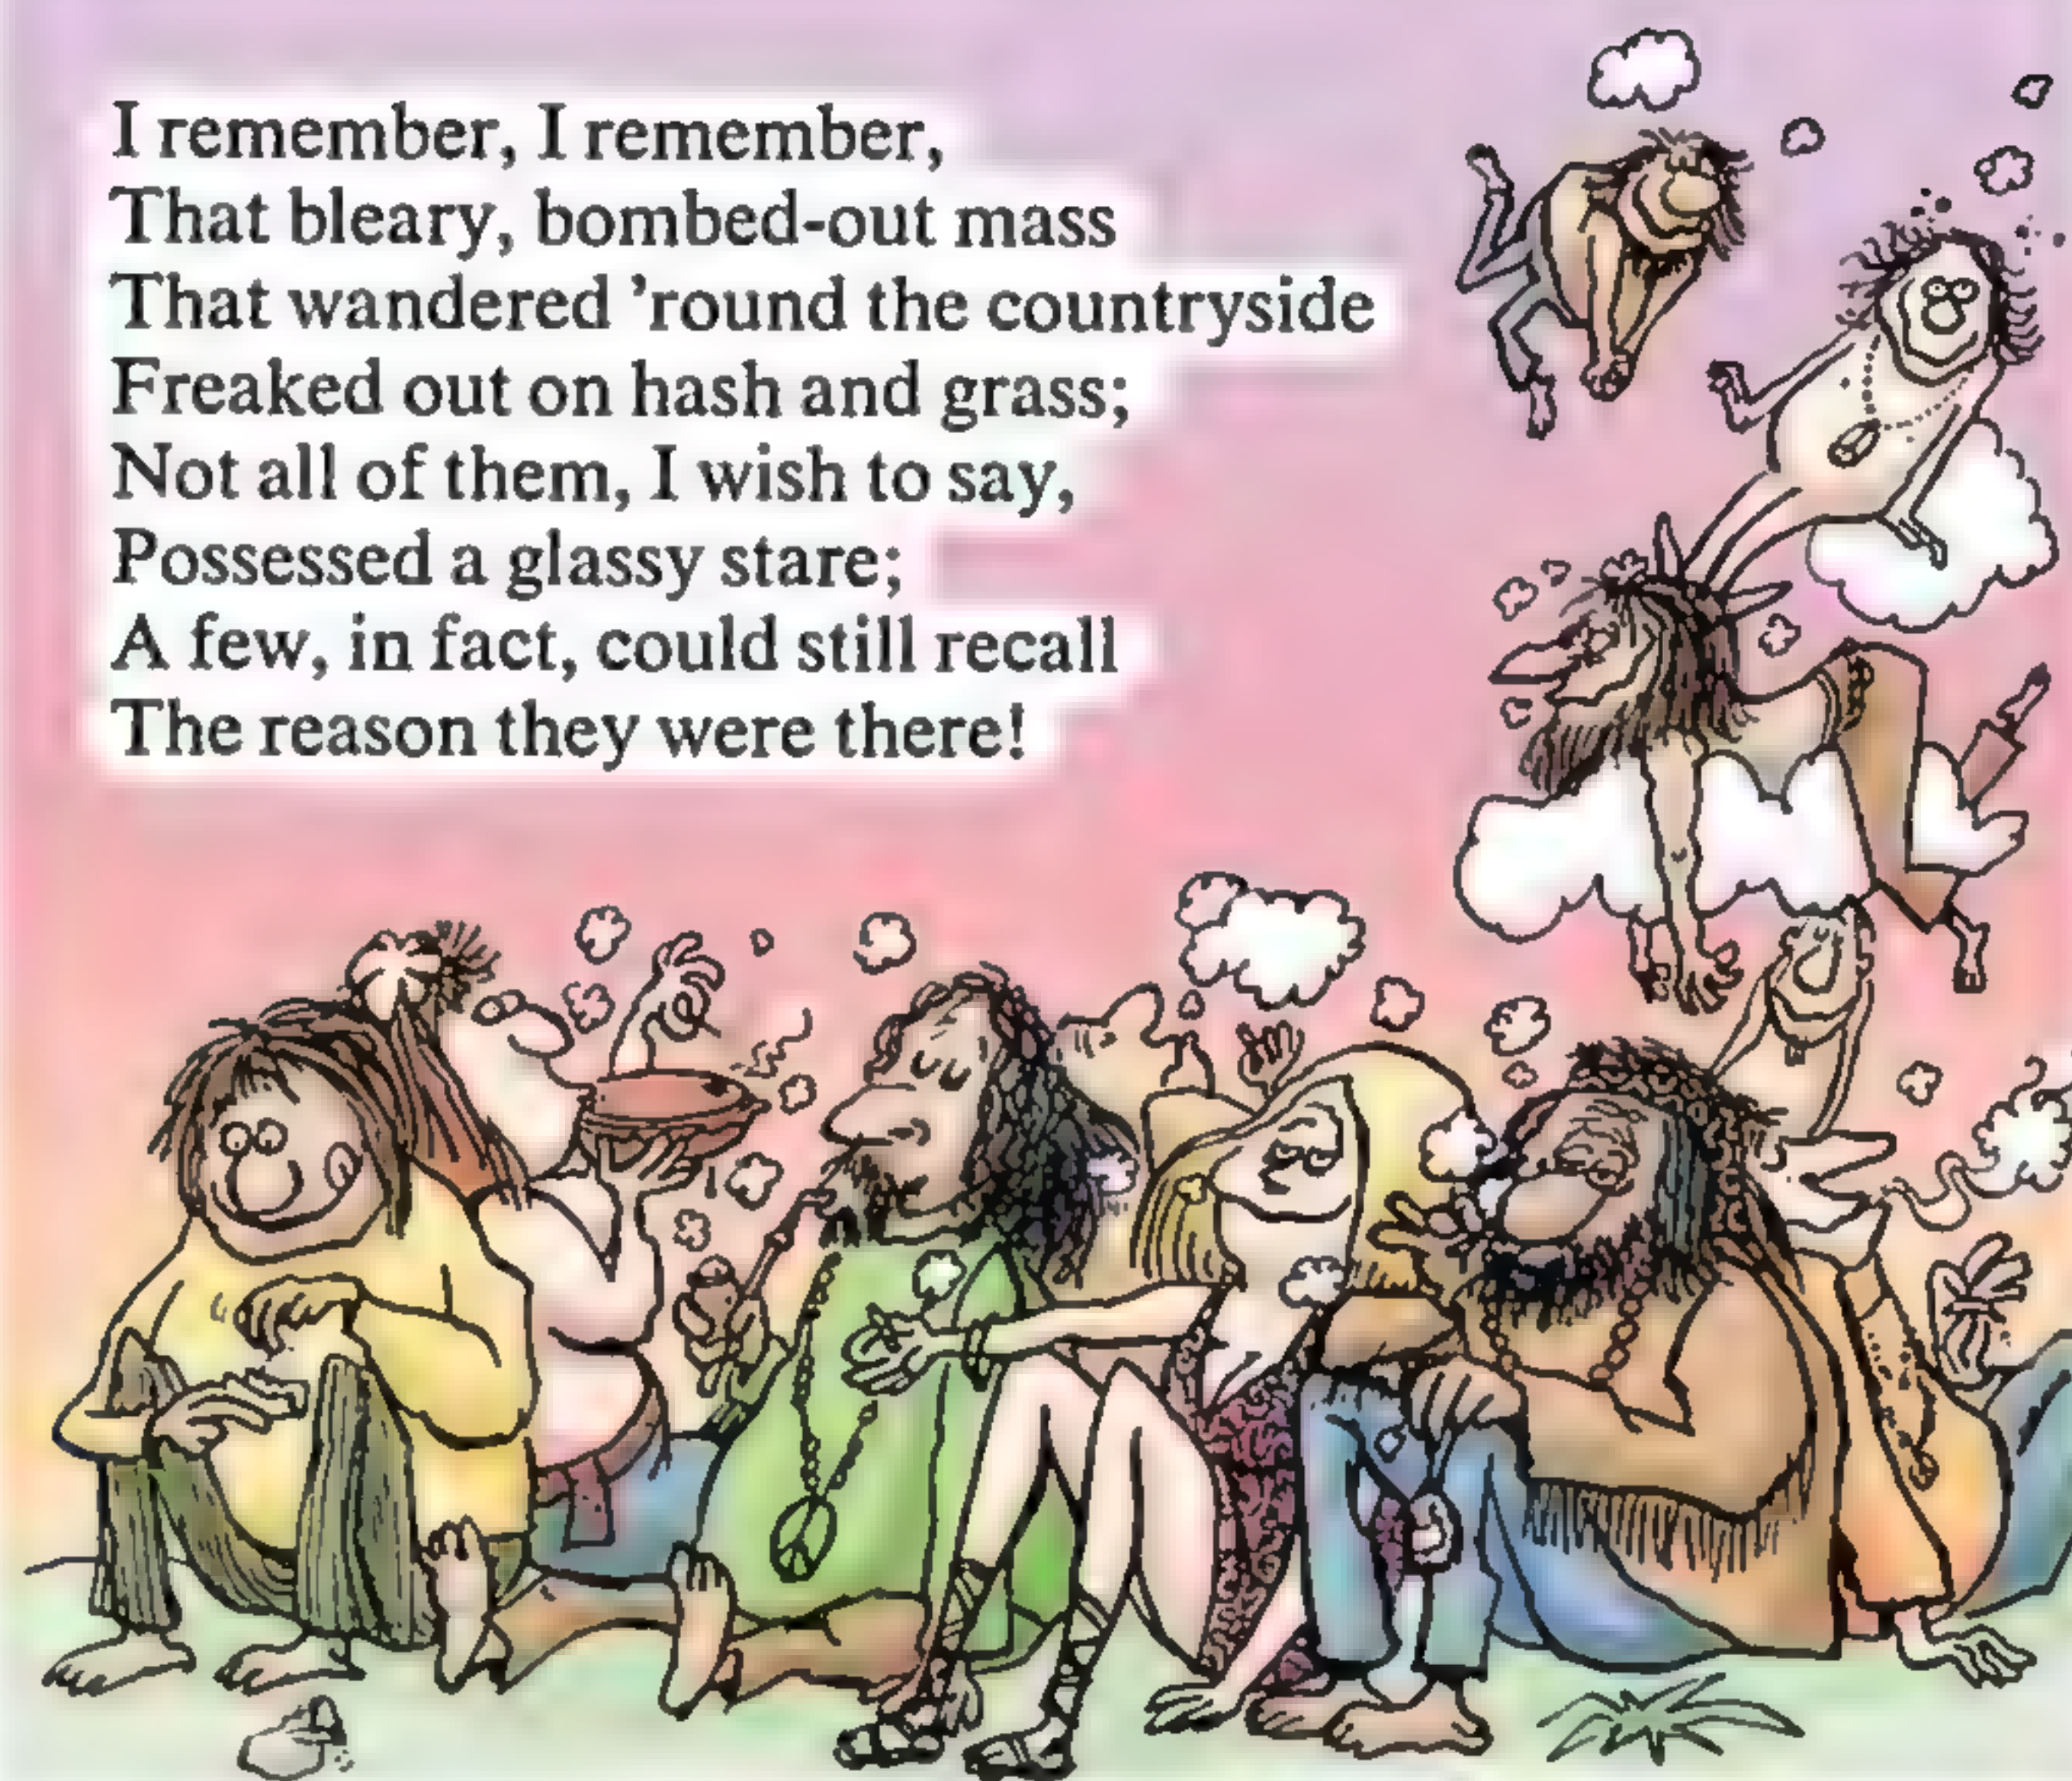

I remember, I remember,
The wondrous Woodstock Fair;
In August, '69, it was,
And all the Heads were there;

Four hundred thousand made the trip,
So Walter Cronkite says,
To groove the Who, the Grateful Dead,
Canned Heat, and Joan Baez!

I remember, I remember,
The traffic unforeseen
That clogged the lanes for countless miles
On Highway 17;
And even while I write this verse
I fear there is no doubt
That many drivers still are there
Attempting to get out!

I remember, I remember,
That bleary, bombed-out mass
That wandered 'round the countryside
Freaked out on hash and grass;
Not all of them, I wish to say,
Possessed a glassy stare;
A few, in fact, could still recall
The reason they were there!

I remember, I remember,
That groovy, swinging scene,
That field of wheat that soon became
An open-air latrine;
And how it warmed our happy hearts
And filled us with good cheer
To know the farmer wouldn't need
To buy manure next year!

I remember, I remember,
That cataclysmic flood
Of rain that tumbled from the sky
And turned the Fair to mud;
And how the crowd threw off its clothes
And mingled in the bare,
Until the place looked something like
The final scene of "Hair!"

I remember, I remember,
The way my nights were spent;
The pleasure when I bedded down
Inside my little tent;
And how I found, on waking up,
That all men were my brothers;
That I'd been joined throughout the night
By forty-seven others!

I remember, I remember,
The wondrous Woodstock Fair;
But wait—I haven't told you of
The rock that I heard there;
I'd really like to fill you in,
But much to my dismay,
The closest that I got to it
Was seven miles away!

FREAK SHOW

Watch as spoiled but otherwise normal children of middle- and upper-class America turn into rebels without a cause. Would-be anarchists will be glad to destroy everything that's not nailed down. If you've got pent-up aggression and are easily sucked into mob violence, be sure to attend. Throw a water bottle, a rock, a chunk of concrete. Overturn a port-o-potty. Incite a riot. Take a short break from beating the crap out of a complete stranger in the mosh pit to sign an anti-violence petition. Start a fight. Start a fire. Start a fight over where to start a fire. Then just decide to start lots of fires. Destroy property that isn't yours. Why not? It isn't yours.

CRAF'S BAZAAR

Get a tattoo to piss off your parents who gave you the money to buy tickets and who reluctantly let you attend on your own. Abandon your girlfriend when she refuses to have sex with you in the sewage-like mud with a crowd of beer-chugging onlookers with disposable cameras cheering you on.

If you like shoplifting and looting, stop by one of the many independent vendor tents and see what you can take. Pick a pocket. Pick your nose. Wipe it on one of the few water fountains you can find. Vomit on yourself. Vomit on others. Blow chunks into air and see how many people it lands on.

FOOD

Since anything edible will be confiscated as you enter the concert to further maximize our profits, be sure to bring plenty of money to pay for overpriced junk food and small bottles of water. Or smash open any of our many ATMs located throughout the festival area and put the handfuls of cash inside towards a snack purchase.

HUNDREDS OF ACRES OF SEARING HOT TARMAK TO WANDER AROUND ON IN A HEAT EXHAUSTION-INDUCED DAZE

Walk around for three days without seeing a security guard, any semblance of organization or order, potable water, a port-o-potty without a line a mile long, or the east stage. A MAD POSTER PARODY

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED IN MAD #389, JAN '00

To the average teenager, classical music can be defined as "anything to the right of Meatloaf and The Doobie Brothers." There's an important reason why this art form is so foreign to them. Teenagers don't know what classical music is! And adults who do know don't know how to sell it to them! What's needed here is some good modern "hype"! You know, the kind that rock gets in those pop music fan magazines! For example, here's one way of doing it:

Recently, we asked one of our idiot artists to do a drawing of a rock concert. Unfortunately, he didn't do a very good job. In fact, he made a lot of mistakes . . . 20 in all! And now, it's up to you to find them. Which is why we're asking:

WRITER CHRIS HART ARTIST GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

ANSWERS

1. The audience is smoking cigarettes with tobacco in them.
2. The fan running up to the stage is not being beaten up by the security guards.
3. The man with the plaid suit, black shoes and white socks is not an undercover narcotics agent.
4. The musicians are playing their final number, and they're not destroying a single instrument on stage.
5. The man is eating his French fries, rather than throwing them.
6. The beer isn't flat.
7. The tough dudes are relinquishing seats that don't belong to them.
8. The person in the first row got his ticket legally, without paying triple to a scalper.
9. The usher understands the seating arrangement of the concert hall.
10. The drummer is reading the sheet music.
11. The lead singer's hair has been washed and combed.
12. There are no misspellings on the banner.
13. The girls are dancing in the aisle so they won't obstruct the view of the people behind them.
14. This is the "Coke" that the band ordered for after the show.
15. The roadies are not wearing T-shirts with beer advertisements on them.
16. The guy is leaving the concert early because he has to get up for school the next morning.
17. The promoters have generously provided free programs to each of the $15-per-ticket customers.
18. The guitarist tuned his guitar before appearing on stage.
19. The band is playing overtime because the concert started late.
20. The guards are actually throwing away the liquor they confiscated.

There's no doubt about it! The hottest thing in the recording field today is the "comedy album"! Bob Newhart, Shelley Berman, Nichols and May, Lenny Bruce, Mort Sahl, all have achieved fantastic success and popularity as a result of their comedy album sales. Which brings us to this article. MAD predicts that it won't be long before some of the other musical artists who used to have the recording field all to themselves—seeing this trend, and anxious to improve their popularity (not to mention their financial positions)—will start releasing their own comedy albums. When that happens, record shelves will be overflowing with these

Good evening! It's my great financial pleasure to be here with you. I see where Richard Rodgers has succeeded in breaking up the team of "Lerner and Loewe" in order to get Alan Jay as his lyricist. I guess, throughout history, there have always been individuals who wanted to break up existing teams. And this got me to thinking. Supposing one of the famous composers of years ago . . . like Puccini . . . wanted to team up with someone. He'd've probably tried to split up a successful team like Gilbert and Sullivan. And here is my impression of the way he'd have gone about it . . .

Hello, Operator? This is Giacomo Puccini. I'm calling London, England. The song-writing team of Gilbert and Sullivan. I want to speak to Gilbert. He's the fat one!

Hello, Gilbert? This is Giacomo. How are you, Baby? How's your diet coming along? Lost that much, eh? Listen, Gilly-boy, I caught "The Mikado" in Milan! It's a bomb! No, no, nothing against you! Your stuff was great. Loved your lyrics. It was Sullivan! The guy just can't write music! I mean, he's a hack!

Sure I know about the album sales in Piccadilly! But they've got those crazy teenagers there! They'll buy anything! Listen, didn't they go wild over Dickens?

You want to appeal to the smart adult crowd, Gil! You need a partner who can create "class music" for your lyrics! You need someone with "style"! Let's face it, Baby! You need me! Now, here's what I have in mind! Listen to this . . .

What do you think? What's that? It sounded like I copped the melody from Johann Strauss? C'mon, Gil! You're putting me on! You know all my stuff is original! Besides, Johann's a buddy! I wouldn't steal from him. Him from me . . . maybe!

Here's a better example of what I can do! Listen to this. It's part of a new thing I'm working on called "La Boheme"!

How was that? It did, huh? To high heavens, eh? But, Gil-Baby! Listen to me, Sweetie! This stuff is class! Give it a chance. Tell you what. Let me send you something in the mail. Rush. You'll get it in two—three months. It's called "Madame Butterfly." Cute stuff. You'll like it. Yeah. Okay? Good. Keep in touch. My regards to what's-his-name . . . Sullivan! G'bye, Baby!

What's that? The first word is "Caramba"!

And the last word is "Seattle"! Now what's the dramatic style?

Louder, please, Señor! "Early Shirley Temple"!

Well, that certainly is a challenge, isn't it Abbe? Why don't you start in English . . . and I'll finish in Spanish!

Inside
JUDY GARLAND

When I was a little girl—I mean a young girl—I was never really a "little" girl—I suddenly decided to go to Ballet School. Here then is my mother, receiving a phone call from her daughter, Judith, asking for $100, to go to Ballet School.

Hello, Judith? Where are you? You should have been home for your milk and cake hours ago. No, don't cry. Judith, please stop crying. You're 18½—stop crying! I'll save it for you. Now, what did you call for? Exciting news? What? Ballet School? That's exciting? You need $100. That's more than exciting. That's terrifying. It's also ridiculous. First of all, we don't have $100. And second, you're clumsy. You'd look silly as a ballet dancer. Swan Lake? No, I never saw you in Swan Lake. But I did see you in the Park Lake, when you fell in. There you were clumsy. Listen, Judith. Forget Ballet School, and come home. Your milk and cake will be waiting. And Judith. Don't go on a diet!

THE SICK HUMOR
of VAN CLIBURN

I can see this is the type of audience that really digs me—truants! To begin with, let me say that if you really want to have a time tonight, a real ball, then you won't bug me with that "Doesn't he have a cute hairdo" jazz. Dig? And let's level with each other about my act. I don't do piano jokes. Dig? I mean like if you're expecting any of that Victor Borge nonsense, forget it! You can cut out now. I do hip, satirical, "burning tank" jokes. And if you're really bugged on music, maybe I'll throw in a few Maria Callas things, maybe some other jazz, you never can tell. But we'll swing!

Remember when they shipped me over to Russia for the Tchaikowsky Music Competition? What a farce! Sure I grabbed the prize, but I really had to hustle to win. Since I was an American, they gave me a little handicap. I had to play the piano with mittens. Wacko! Sicko! So I won, and they gave me this big shiny trophy. Big deal. $3.98 at Woolworth's, tops! Probably made in Japan! But what really bugged me was Moscow itself. It doesn't swing like Houston or El Paso. There's no action. So what I did for kicks was stand around all day throwing snowballs into the Kremlin!

And when they brought me home for that ridiculous parade down Broadway, with all those office chicks throwing ticker tape! Who needed it? It was really depressing! I mean, Lindberg and MacArthur went through the same nonsense, and look what happened to them! No-where! The officials said, "You're a hero! You'll ride up Broadway!" I said, "I don't dig Broadway! Le'me ride up The Bowery!" So we rode four miles up Broadway, and then they broke the news to me. I had to chip in for the gas! Wacko! Sicko I flipped!

Society is fickle. Tastes change. Three years ago, I was page-one news, pulling a hundred—two hundred grand . . . on testimonials alone! Today, I'm out of it. And look who's the leading pianist. Jose Melis! Whacky? Me? I work an occasional concert. And for a price, I'll tune a piano. Next week, I close the show at the Tanglewood Music Festival. I don't perform, though. What I do is kick the couples off the grass at the end of the concert. It's not much money, but it's lots of laughs. After that, who knows? Maybe Newport, for the annual Jazz Festival riots!

Today, we will analyze four of the greatest immortals the music world has known—Ludwig Van Beethoven, Franz Liszt, Stephen Foster, and Mitch Miller. All masters, right? Popular? Strong followings? Anyway, onward! First, Beethoven. He was a genius. Only he had an inferiority complex about wearing glasses. Right? He was the first self-conscious composer of the 19th Century. But the important thing is: The glasses helped create the image. They made him look distinguished. Sort of a stout Dave Brubeck. Ironically, he never finished making the payments . . .

Franz Liszt, musically speaking, was not as mature, as consistent, or as skillful as Beethoven. But 20th Century-Fox did make a technicolor movie about him, so what can I say? He's got a big thing going for him right there. True? Recognition at last! Progress! Liszt was an immaculate dresser, and impressed the courts of Europe with his impeccable attire. Until one performance, when he sat down to play, and someone—I think it was Chopin—spread the rumor that Liszt wore a "Sissy Deodorant." It destroyed his career. After that, he sort of lost his incentive. No drive.

Stephen Foster wrote Ballads about the South. He was to the right of Beethoven, musically—and to the left of Faubus, politically. He also had a behavior problem. He gambled. Many people think he wrote "Camptown Races." Actually, he attended them! On top of that, he had a persecution complex. The public picked on him. When he wrote "I Dream of Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair," not only didn't he get paid for it, but they made it sound like a fetish . . .

Mitch Miller is a contemporary phenomenon. I read the ratings of his show. 24 million watch it, 5 million actually sing along, and 4 million are off key. Insane! When people switch him off, they're not really showing a dislike for Miller. Actually, because of his beard, they're subconsciously rejecting the father-image. Right? Anyway, I can't comment fairly on his show because, personally, Friday nights, I watch "Pony Express." True, there's more action on "Sing Along With Mitch," but they sing better on "Pony Express." Right? Hah! Revealing! If there are any groups I haven't offended, I apologize . . .

"PAST THE PRIME OF THEIR LIFE"

(sung to the tune of Dirty Dancing's "(I've Had) The Time Of My Life")

They're back, those chart-busting groups of yesteryear— The Who, Rolling Stones, Beach Boys, Monkees and all the rest now making comebacks with reunion concerts. And while some fans are happy to see them back, we're not so sure. Because from what we've seen, it's painfully obvious that all of them are...

Now we're... past... the prime of our li-fe,
And we won't... see for-ty.. an-y.. more;
And al-though... we've faded.. from.. view,
These re-u-nion.. shows.. we.. do;
And we're here... past... the prime of our li-fe —
This de-crep-it... worn-out... crew.

It's a drag, we all a-gree,
Comin' back, so fans can see
Our tir-ed butts!
All our songs are out-of-date,
And it's ob-vi-ous we hate
Each other's guts!

Loads of groupies dig our band,
They prefer a one-night stand
To high-school proms!
'Course, we never let 'em know
That we made it years ago
With all their moms!

We remember —
Songs.. fresh! Gigs.. hot!
Ev'ry.. show.. a.. big.. thrill!
Now we hang.. on,.. half-shot —
Over.. the.. hill!

That's 'cause we're... past... the prime of our li-fe,
And we nev-er... were.. this.. bald.. be-fore!
Bod-y parts... which once worked... like... ne-w,
Don't.. work.. so.. well.. no.. more!

See what's left.. of.. our.. chest
And our waist-line spread-in' east.. to.. west!
Once we sang songs.. with.. bite —
Now our den-tures have to soak.. all.. night!
Note our with-ered-up.. face
Full of wrinkles that we can't.. e-rase!

Hate.. the.. scene.. now —
Each re-u-nion.. show.. sucks!
Hate.. each.. old.. rou-tine.. now —
But.. need.. the.. bucks!

Yessir, we're... past... the prime of our li-fe —
And our youth... no doc-tor.. can.. re-store!
Still you... do.. the best you.. can.. do-o
When you're called... a.. di-no-saur!
So we're here... past... the prime of our li-fe,
Breathin'.. hard... to make it just.. once.. more!
This.. last.. time... we're stag-ger-in' throu-gh

THE BEHIND OF THE MUSIC

This episode: Def Leppard Drummer Rick Allen's Left Arm

The year is 1983. British pop-metal band Def Leppard tops the U.S. charts with the massively popular and completely forgettable album Pyromania.

Dec 31st, 1984 — during an unscheduled car accident, drummer Rick Allen and his left arm decide to go their separate ways.

Everyone knows that Allen bravely continued his musical career (proving you only need one arm to play in a crap band like Def Leppard).

Few know, however, that Allen's left arm also pursued a drumming career after leaving Allen and the band.

Being roughly 1/6th of a rock star, the arm did attract some attention.

Unfortunately, the audience reaction was less than enthusiastic.

Depressed, the former 1/6th of a rock star fell into a sordid life of drugs and partying.

When the money ran out, the arm ended up in the street, begging for handouts on Hollywood Boulevard.

Eventually the police picked up the arm for vagrancy.

Despondent, the arm attempted suicide.

The arm spent most of the 90s in and out of various rehab clinics.

In 2004, VH1's Bands Reunited and microsurgeon Rajiv Gupta brought Allen and his long-missing arm back together for a one-shot reunion show...

After which Allen and his arm once again went their separate ways.

LETTERS!

ARTICLE OF IMPEACHMENT

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

We in the UK have a good sense of humour. So we were delighted when, against all the odds of decency and common sense, your people voted in Donald Trump as President. He has proved to be worth his weight in gold for sheer crass buffoonery!

With this in mind, I have a mild enquiry. I just received issue No. 11 of February 2020. The artwork, as usual, is superlative, and the humour sometimes a little juvenile but still worth every penny of your subscription fee. However, my query is, where is the item titled "Snappy Impeachments for Stupid Presidents," which is listed as being on page 09? I feel cheated. Any omission of Trumpery must be taken seriously!

Thank you,

I've been a MAD subscriber for years and long to have a photo and letter included in your magazine. If you look closely you'll see gray hair, so I may not have many more chances.

Last-Minute Mike,

Next time you and Marcia break into someone else's bedroom, please refrain from making Alfred an "accessory" to your crime. Meanwhile, we hope having your mug featured in MAD doesn't lead to the fuzz finding and arresting you. (We considered changing your name here, but what would Honest Abe say?)

ROCK OF AGES DEPT.

To the average teenager, Classical Music can be defined as "anything to the right of Meatloaf and The Dooby Brothers." There's an important reason why this art form is so foreign to them. Teenagers don't know what Classical Music is! And adults who do know don't know how to sell it to them! What's needed here is some good modern "hype"! You know, the kind that Rock gets in those Pop Music Fan Magazines! For example, here's one way of doing it:

LOU BEETHOVEN TELLS IT LIKE IT IS

An Outspoken Interview
With A 1780's Superstar

by Sax Reed

He's got brown wavy hair that seems to say, "Please run your fingers through me." He's got sexy legs that won't quit on you, and a pair of burning baby blue eyes that could drop a shotzie at 100 paces and leave her gasping for breath. He's tall, dreamy, and talented, and his tunes are going into orbit on all the charts. He's Lou Beethoven, of course, and we broke bread and chatted the other day at Ratskeller 54, the In Spot along Berlin's Great White Way.

We started out by asking him to what he owed his fabulous success. "Hard work, talent, and naturally my terrific agent, Bernie, at Wilhelm Morris," said Lou. "But bottom line, it's luck. You have to anticipate the kind of noise that's going to turn the public on, and then sock it to 'em."

"The way Jojo Bach did years ago with his funky concertos?" we asked.

He nodded. "But the times they are a-changing. The kids don't dig hard Bach anymore. They're into softer melodies now, and mostly they're listening to the words."

Then he hit us with the bombshell. He's putting lyrics to all his great instrumentals. And pretty soon the high school prom set will not only be dancing to his bouncy 5th Symphony and Violin Concerto in D, but also singing along.

"Look for some dynamite lyrics coming up for my Eroica Symphony," he announced, referring to his recent musical tribute to his buddy Napoleon Bonaparte.

"What are you planning to call it?" we asked.

"I'm toying with 'Short People,' he said. "But nothing's definite yet."

As for his personal life, well, still no wedding bells, but dismiss all those nasty rumors. Lou is as straight as a baton. Proof? Check out that blonde groupie who was in his dressing room at the Stuttgart Symphony Hall the other night.

Recalling the incident he winked and said, smiling naughtily, "You should have seen my Second and Third Movements."

And what about those snide stories around town about Lou's hearing going bad? We hit him with the $64,000 question: "Lou, what about your hearing?"

"Do I really have to dignify that ridiculous question with an answer?" he asked impatiently. Then he sighed and went on, "Oh very well, I like it with pickled onions and pumpernickel."

This puzzled us a bit. "Your hearing, Lou?" we said. Then we raised our voice, "We asked you about your hearing."

"Oh hearing?" he said, starting to chuckle. "I thought you said herring" . . .

LONGHAIR DANDRUFF

Random Fallout Along The Classical Beat by Sammy Quaver

"Murray the R" Ravel

The In Crowd is buzzing about ivory-tickler Freddy Chopin. His "Minute Waltz" may be tops on the charts, but they say his gigs in bed are the pits. "He should change his theme song to 'The Thirty-Second Waltz,'" says his old lady, "Gorgeous George" Sand. Meowwww!... Looks like Big Daddy Haydn (his Cello Concerto in D Major is still going through the roof in all the trade polls) is making other headlines nowadays. Our spies tell us that Big D was just busted and is cooling his heels in the slammer for trying to smuggle in snuff to Vienna...Wondering whatever happened to ace composer "Murray The R" Ravel? Seems he's got writer's block. His latest tune has nothing but the same notes played over and over and over again. He calls it "The Bolero." We call it Dullsville... And still more trouble in Longhair Alley. It looks like melody wiz Lou Beethoven (remember his humm-able "Missa Solemnis?") is hitting the schnapps again. When they talk about Beethoven's 5th nowadays, we're afraid it's the booze, not the symphony. Friends worry about his drinking... Yock Of The Week: Schloque Offenbach (he created the kinky "Can-Can" dance) propositioned a married can-can dancer the other night, who gave him this howlacious reply, "Can't-Can't!"... Getting back to Lou Beethoven again, we're told his latest project is an oratorio for 400 voices—in sign language. His friends are really worried about his hearing... This colyums suggestion for a great way for the French Army to get Prussian prisoners of war to talk: Expose 'em for three straight hours to the (ugh) Bolero!... Remember the torrid duet violinist Fritzie Kreisler was doing with a red-headed beerhall shatzie from Hamburg? Well, forget it, folks! It seems that Fritzie is now playing second fiddle to a cellist jock from Bremerhaven Tech... Dip your quill in sunshine and write a cheer-up letter to shut-in tunesmith Jojo Bach, who's under the weather with some typical 18th Century ailments now going around: sore throat, upset stomach, flu, and a touch of the Black Death. Get well soon,

Flip Mendelssohn

Jojo... Just caught "Murray The R's" Bolero again. It is BORRRRRRRRRRING!!! Jewish composer Flip Mendelssohn (people are still whistling his catchy "Elijah" oratorio) and his family have decided that they would rather switch than fight. So they've converted to the Protestant faith. That's funny, they don't LOOK Lutheran... Congrats to "Murray The R" Ravel. His fabulous "Bolero" is number One on the charts. Hitsville all the way. Remember, you heard it here first!

YOU SHOULD ASK

Got a question about your favorite star? Chances are we've got the answer. If we don't, we'll check it out for you. If we still don't find the answer, we'll make one up. And what's more you'll never know the difference, and considering the way we control their lives, neither will the stars. So get ready, aim and fire away!

QUESTION: I hear that composer Joey Strauss is a fabulous surfer, and he and his board are inseparable. How did he ever find the time to write that fantastic waltz?

ANSWER: He was hanging around the blue Danube one year waiting for a wave, and the rest is history.

QUESTION: I really groove on "The Franz" Schubert. Tell me a little bit about his personal life since he wrote "The Unfinished Symphony."

ANSWER: He recently rented part of a pad in Vienna and filled it with unfinished furniture, half of which he painted. He's in generally good health, although because of a Vitamin B1 deficiency once, he had a mild case of beri. He spends a lot of his spare time writing to his cousin Gustave, who lives in Walla, Washington. And he also has an uncle who, unfortunately, is doing a stretch in Sing Sing Prison, in Upstate New York.

QUESTION: I recently attended a fabulous outdoor concert in Salzburg and heard the most incredible rendition of "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" ever. It was so real you could actually hear the bee buzzing. Could you tell me who the guest artist was?

ANSWER: Dmitri Shostakovitch. And that wasn't "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" he played. It was "The Hungarian Rhapsody." The next time you shave check your face to see if you have a sting lump up your nose.

QUESTION: I heard that a sneak thief tried to rob the Bolshoi Ballet last week, and ballet dancer Boris Vorishlov, still wearing his tights and tutu, attacked him with a ballerina's purse and killed him. How could that be?

ANSWER: We just got a coroner's report. Actually he died laughing.

QUESTION: Composer "Jocko" Rossini really turns me on. Has the fact that his "William Tell Overture" is so popular in America lately had any effect at all on his life style?

ANSWER: None that we know of. We tried to speak to him personally about this, but we're told he's busy these days riding up and down the Seven Hills of Rome with a faithful Indian companion.

Do The Frauleins Avoid You Like The Plague?
